

University of Maryland Shore Convenient Care at Denton provides medical care and diagnostic services to patients in need of treatment for minor illnesses and injuries including:

- Respiratory Infections
- Urinary Tract Infections
- Colds
- Flu and flu-like symptoms
- Allergies
- Headaches
- Sprains, strains and broken bones
- Lacerations and cuts
- Bruises and contusions
- Insect and animal bites

Diagnostic Services Available:

- Laboratory Services
- X-ray

Treatment at an Emergency Department is recommended for the following:

- Life-threatening illnesses or injuries
- Severe chest pain
- Loss of consciousness
- Severe or uncontrolled bleeding
- Large surface burns to the body

Patients experiencing life-threatening illnesses or injuries, including but not limited to the conditions above, should call 911.

This is not a substitute for medical advice.

SHORE CONVENIENT CARE AT DENTON

SHORE CONVENIENT CARE AT DENTON

Patients should see their primary care or specialty care provider for the following:

- Prescription refills
- Management of chronic medical conditions
- Treatment for chronic pain conditions

Where to contact us:

Shore Convenient Care at Denton

836 South 5th Avenue

Denton, MD 21629

Located in the plaza adjacent to Food Lion

Open Monday - Friday, Noon - 8 p.m.

No appointment necessary; Walk-ins welcomed.

Most insurances accepted.

For additional information about University of Maryland Shore Convenient Care at Denton or services provided at this location, call 410-479-5905.

www.shorehealth.org

UNIVERSITY of MARYLAND
SHORE REGIONAL HEALTH