

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

A fundamental purpose of the Town of Denton Ethics law is to assure citizens that the financial interests of holder of or candidates for public office, as well as certain Town officials, certain employees, and members of Boards and Commissions, present no conflict to the public interest.

Financial disclosure statements are reviewed by the Ethics Commission and maintained as public records. Failure to file or to report information required by Chapter 14 of the Town Code subjects the filer to disciplinary action and/or civil sanction, including a fine up to $500.00.
